

Learning a new language is daunting, and it's the key to feeling comfortable and becoming self-sufficient. Here are resources to share with tutors & volunteers who are helping clients learn English.

Sample ESOL curriculum for refugees by Minnesota Literacy Council:

<https://mnliteracy.org/tools/curriculum-lesson-plans/beginning-esl-transitions-skills>

Sample ESOL curriculum for refugees by Nicole Nichter:

<https://sites.google.com/site/bestpracticesforadultrefugees/curriculum>

Suggested textbooks for ESOL:

Health Stories, Readings and Language Activities for Healthy Choices

(Ann Gianola) -- ProLiteracy/New Readers Press

Conversations for Work

(Ellen Vacco & Paula Jablon) -- ProLiteracy/New Readers Press

Literacy (Longman—Nishio)

Literacy in Lifeskills (Heinle & Heinle)

Laubach Way To Reading 1 (Sounds & Names of Letters)

Future English for Results (Workbook) (Pearson—Longman)

Foundations (Molinsky & Bliss)

Oxford Picture Dictionary

Word by Word Picture Dictionary

Free online dictionary: <http://www.dicts.info/picture-dictionary.php> (Select the language you want at the top of the page)