A MEETING OF THE VALLEY INTERFAITH COUNCIL

IMMIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

HOW CAN THE FAITH COMMUNITY RESPOND TO THE CRISIS?

WHEN
Thursday, September 19
7pm - 9pm

WHERE
Seymour Congregational Church
45 Broad Street, Seymour, CT

Keep on loving one another as brothers and sisters. Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it.

Hebrews 13:1-2

FEATURED SPEAKERS

RABBI HERB BROCKMAN
Rabbi Emeritus
Congregation Mishkan Israel
“Religion should be a bridge to others, not a barrier, not a wall,”

CHRIS GEORGE
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
IRIS
“New Haven has a long, historic tradition of welcoming people from around the world. We are the agency that has that responsibility and we take it very seriously.”

MARYJOAN PICONE
DIRECTOR EMMAUS MIGRANT ADVOCACY PROJECT
MaryJoan created the Emmaus Migrant Advocacy project - to promote awareness of the economic, health and psycho-social plight of our brothers and sisters in Mexico, El Salvador, Guatemala and Honduras