College & Career Readiness Youth Mentor

- Time: Mondays from 2:30-5:00 pm
- Commitment: weekly from September 2019 to June 2020 (Flexible)
- Location: Dwight Hall, Yale Old Campus, New Haven
- IRIS staff supervisors: Laurel McCormack, Tanya Genn and Dennis Wilson
- Description and Responsibilities: The IRIS Youth Leadership Program has a weekly meeting for teen and young adult refugees and immigrants focused on academic and extracurricular support. It's guided each week by IRIS staff, with mentors providing small group or one-on-one attention for youth in helping them identify their strengths and interests over time and to find and pursue extracurricular, vocational, and higher educational opportunities to work towards their goals.
-  Desired skills and background: We seek mentors who have some previous experience directly serving youth, communicating cross-culturally, and/or who have experience guiding others with essay writing and FAFSA, scholarship and college applications. We also hope to attract mentors who identify with historically underrepresented groups in college and professional paths who will be able to assist refugee and immigrant youth in navigating American institutions as young People of Color.

After School Program Volunteer

- Descriptions: At IRIS After School, we provide arts and music education, as well as homework help, for refugee and new immigrant kids aged 6-16.
- Duties: Volunteers help these English language learners with their homework, providing academic enrichment and a language rich environment. They'll support the lead teachers in music and arts workshops when needed and carry out various tasks like setting and cleaning up activities, facilitating recess, and doing crafts and playing games with the kids. We are also seeking volunteers with backgrounds in the arts and music, as well as some teaching experience, to be lead workshop teachers themselves. Finally, we are hoping to add gymnastics and martial arts to our curriculum for next semester; volunteers with skills in those areas should definitely reach out!
- Additional help: Drive children home after the program (5:00-5:30pm). Gas is reimbursable
- Days/times preferred: 3-5:15pm, M-F, whenever school is in session
- Commitment: At least one afternoon per week

Community Access Volunteer (Driving)

❖ Hours per week needed: flexible
❖ Days/times preferred: One or more days M-F between 8:00-5:00; mornings most needed
❖ Commitment: 3 month minimum
❖ Requirements: Knowledge of bus systems preferred, but will be trained. Applicants must have strong interpersonal skills, cultural sensitivity, and cross-communication skills and be comfortable meeting and assisting clients one to one. Enjoy being around mothers and young children (under 5 years old).
➢ Ability to communicate in one or more languages in addition to English (especially Kiswahili, Arabic, Dari, and Pashto) is a plus!
❖ Duties: Volunteers are paired with clients to teach the empowering skill of navigating New Haven public transportation. Many clients do not yet have driving licenses so this essential volunteer role enables them to get to appointments, accept job opportunities, attend English class, or take their children to school. At the IRIS office, volunteers call clients with interpreters to set up times to provide bus orientations. Volunteers then modify a template to print out step by step pictorial and simplified English instructions on how to use the bus in general and from point A to B. At the set time, volunteers meet clients and help them follow the instructions to successfully get to their destination and gain confidence in using public transportation. Volunteers often may need to wait at the place and travel back with the client as well. Can be combined with other Family Literacy Program volunteer opportunities as well.
