Must be willinging to drive clients in your personal vehicle.

➢ (CLIENTS HAVE THEIR OWN CAR SEATS AND VOLUNTEERS CAN BE REIMBURSED FOR MILEAGE)

Community Access Volunteer (Driving)

❖ Hours per week needed: flexible
❖ Days/times preferred: One or more days M-F between 8:00-5:00; mornings most needed
❖ Commitment: 3 month minimum
❖ Requirements: Knowledge of bus systems preferred, but will be trained. Applicants must have strong interpersonal skills, cultural sensitivity, and cross-communication skills and be comfortable meeting and assisting clients one to one. Enjoy being around mothers and young children (under 5 years old).

➢ Ability to communicate in one or more languages in addition to English (especially Kiswahili, Arabic, Dari, and Pashto) is a plus!
❖ Duties: Volunteers are paired with clients to teach the empowering skill of navigating New Haven public transportation. Many clients do not yet have driving licenses so this essential volunteer role enables them to get to appointments, accept job opportunities, attend English class, or take their children to school. At the IRIS office, volunteers call clients with interpreters to set up times to provide bus orientations. Volunteers then modify a template to print out step by step pictorial and simplified English instructions on how to use the bus in general and from point A to B. At the set time, volunteers meet clients and help them follow the instructions to successfully get to their destination and gain confidence in using public transportation. Volunteers often may need to wait at the place and travel back with the client as well. Can be combined with other Family Literacy Program volunteer opportunities as well.
